Do faculty advise students one on one?

Who advises in the concentrations I'm considering?

DEPARTMENTS VARY IN SIZE, AND IN THEIR APPROACH TO ADVISING. WHICH APPROACH IS BEST FOR YOU?

How often do students meet with concentration advisers?

Who advises thesis writers?

Speak with advisers at the Office of Career Services, and to departmental advisors, about what the alumni of concentrations you're interested in went on to do after they graduated.

Visit ocs.fas.harvard.edu for more information.

Choosing your concentration isn't just about knowing requirements. It's about knowing yourself. What are you most interested in learning about? What sorts of questions do you love to ponder? What problems in the world do you want to help solve? What kind of academic environment do you think you would thrive in?

ADVISING MATTERS

QUESTIONS TO CONSIDER

HOW DO DIFFERENT CONCENTRATIONS APPROACH THE SUBJECTS I'M INTERESTED IN?

HOW IS HONORS ELIGIBILITY DETERMINED?

WOULD THEY ALIGN WITH OTHER GOALS OF MINE (SUMMER RESEARCH, INTERNSHIPS OR STUDY ABROAD?)

WHAT ARE THE REQUIREMENTS OF THE CONCENTRATIONS I'M INTERESTED IN?

DO THEY HAVE A TUTORIAL OR A THESIS REQUIREMENT?

HOW MANY COURSES WOULD I NEED TO TAKE?

BE SURE TO CONSIDER THAT EVERY CONCENTRATION HAS ITS OWN UNIQUE COMMUNITY WITH ITS OWN UNIQUE CHARACTER AND CULTURE– OFFERING, FOR EXAMPLE, SPEAKER SERIES, COLLOQUIA AND SOCIAL GATHERINGS.

DOES THIS CONCENTRATION OFFER RESEARCH OPPORTUNITIES?

ARE THERE DIFFERENT 'TYPES' OF RESEARCH?

Learn more in the Guidebook or at advisingfortnight.fas.harvard.edu.

The deadline is April 21!

GO TO EVENTS OF KINDRED CONCENTRATIONS DURING ADVISING FORTNIGHT TO COMPARE. SOME WILL HOST JOINT EVENTS!

SPEAK WITH AS MANY FACULTY, STUDENTS, OR OTHER PRESENTERS AT CONCENTRATION EVENTS AS YOU CAN. FORTNIGHT AFFORDS YOU A RARE OPPORTUNITY TO GAIN LOTS OF DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVES. DON'T MISS OUT!
